Are we ready to shift?

FROM SURVIVAL TO SERVING

Moving away from being motivated by self-preservation to genuine service will enable us to reimagine our community in a new way. A sense of fear robs us of living the gospel message to its fullest.

FROM MEMBERS TO DISCIPLES

Membership is a dying concept. People no longer join institutions for the sake of joining. People seek to be part of something that gives meaning and relevance to their lives. They want to make a difference.

FROM ADDING TO MULTIPLYING

We have bought into 'bigger is better' in ways that have altered how we do church. To put all of our eggs in one basket, however, has potential downfalls. Churches that embrace multiplying seed along the way.

FROM LEADERSHIP TO FOLLOWSHIP

Helping your people discern their gifts and ministry calling, and sending them forth in service, is a strong example of the church fulfilling its call.

FROM PLACE TO SPACE

Effective churches will see place as a conduit for effective ministries. The need for facilities of the right size will continue as churches seek to develop stewardship models that allow them to address outreach.
